

Bernadette Weigand-Nelson
Quotes from Letters of Reference

Professional

“...a gifted artist who had students working on some impressive projects.”
-Don Alexander

“Above average...enthusiasm for teaching, sense of responsibility, expressive ability, flexibility, initiative, potential.”
-Jim Peters

“I was impressed with the skills that a considerable number of students have acquired....There was a good variety in the lesson,...and the students obviously were comfortable in the class...”
-Joachim Stenzel

Peer

“Bernie is very present and real....a bit of a renaissance woman...would bring creativity, new energy and a global perspective to any school environment”
- Mark Wolfe

“...an invaluable resource in our community...intelligent, hard-working, pleasant associate.”
-Atsuko Murakami

“...diligent, creative, and very enthusiastic teacher. She uses her initiative to solve problems...well organized and willing to put an extra effort...” -Angélica Edwards

“ I can count on an organized room,...clear reports, ...valid suggestions...dependable....”
-Amy Fromme

“demonstrated rapport...relates well to the students and is sensitive to their needs.”
-Marilyn Erkeneff

Personal

“...enthusiastic and friendly with a special knack for reaching out to people to make them feel welcome and encouraged....cares deeply for the cross cultural communication these languages facilitate.”
-Dan Mickelson

“...when she sees a need, she is self-motivated to meet the need...works well with people, takes time to notice people...”
-Dave Arnold

“...creative, energetic,...growing learning person, and a good friend.”
-Grace Halvorsen